

From the Pastor's Desk

Some words of wisdom for this year of 2012. Sent to me via email from a friend.

Too many people put off something that brings them joy just because they haven't thought about it, don't have it on their schedule, didn't know it was coming or are too rigid to depart from their routine.

I got to thinking one day about all those people on the Titanic who passed up dessert at dinner that fateful night in an effort to cut back. From then on, I've tried to be a little more flexible. How many women out there will eat at home because their husband didn't suggest going out to dinner until after something had been thawed? Does the word 'refrigeration' mean nothing to you? How often have your kids dropped in to talk and sat in silence while you watched 'Jeopardy' on television?

I cannot count the times I called my sister and said, 'How about going to lunch in a half hour?' She would gas up and stammer, 'I can't. I have clothes on the line. My hair is dirty. I wish I had known yesterday, I had a late breakfast, It looks like rain,' and my personal favorite: 'It's Monday.' She died a few years ago. We never did have lunch together.

Because Americans cram so much into their lives, we tend to schedule our headaches. We live on a sparse diet of promises we make to ourselves when all the conditions are perfect! We'll go back and visit the grandparents when we get Steve toilet-trained. We'll entertain when we replace the living-room carpet. We'll go on a second honeymoon when we get two more kids out of college.

Life has a way of accelerating as we get older. The days get shorter, and the list of promises to ourselves gets longer. One morning, we awaken, and all we have to show for our lives is a litany of 'I'm going to,' 'I plan on,' and 'Someday, when things are settled down a bit.'

When anyone calls my 'seize the moment' friend, she is open to adventure and available for trips. She keeps an open mind on new ideas. Her enthusiasm for life is contagious. You talk with her for five minutes, and you are ready to trade your bad feet for a pair of Rollerblades and skip an elevator for a bungee cord.

My lips have not touched ice cream in 10 years. I love ice cream. It's just that I might as well apply it directly to my stomach with a spatula and eliminate the digestive process. The other day, I stopped the car and bought a triple-decker. If my car had hit an iceberg on the way home, I would have died happy.

Now...go on and have a nice day. Do something you WANT to...not something on your SHOULD DO list. If you were going to die soon and had only one phone call you could make, who would you call and what would you say? And why are you waiting?

Have you ever watched kids playing on a merry go round or listened to the rain lapping on the ground? Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight or gazed at the sun into the fading night? Do you run through each day on the fly? When you ask 'How are you?' Do you hear the reply?

When the day is done, do you lie in your bed with the next hundred chores running through your head? Ever told your child, 'We'll do it tomorrow.' And in your haste, not see his sorrow? Ever lost touch? Let a good friendship die? Just call to say 'Hi'?

When you worry and hurry through your day, it is like an unopened gift....Thrown away.... Life is not a race. Take it slower. Hear the music before the song is over. 'Life may not be the party we hoped for... but while we are here we might as well dance.'

Blessings,

Fr. Warwick

ETHNIC MINORITIES AND THE CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA – NEXT WEEKEND

JANUARY 21-22

The 120 year old National Collection for Black and Native people continues as the embodiment of the Church's concern for evangelizing the Black and Native peoples of the United States. The funds are distributed as grants to dioceses throughout the United States, supporting and strengthening evangelization programs which otherwise would cease. For almost forty years the Church in the United States has been actively assisting the Church in Latin America. After the Synod for America, Pope John Paul II called for a new vision of solidarity within the Church in the western hemisphere. With the aid of the collection, and in cooperation with the bishops of the U.S. and Latin America, grants are made to support the vast needs of the local Churches in Latin America. This assistance through the years has aided immeasurably in the development of the Church in that region. Please be generous.

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE PRINCIPAL

The following went out to the St Simon School families on Tuesday, January 10.

Dear St. Simon Community:

It is with a heavy heart that I submit my resignation as Principal of St. Simon Parish School. I will continue my role as principal for the duration of this school year, but will transition in a new principal to take over the role as principal for 2012-2013. St. Simon is an outstanding school with wonderful students, families, and a dedicated staff. I'm proud to have served as part of this community for 5 years and contributed in a positive way to the educational excellence at St. Simon Parish School.

If you have any questions and/or comments regarding the transition please direct them to Fr. Warwick. It is my hope by announcing my decision at this time that we can plan a smooth and seamless transition for the new principal.

Blessings,
Steven M. Clossick

I have accepted Mr. Clossick's resignation and know that he will be sorely missed. His leadership and innovative improvements to our Parish School have made a significant difference in the lives of our students, and the improvements to the school are in great measure due to his commitment to Catholic Education. A farewell celebration will be announced in the near future. Please hold him and his family in prayer as he makes this transition.
